

Little Tinkerbell

by Vicky Clare

Once upon a time there was a fairy called Tinkerbell.
She lived in a fairy village with the Fairy Queen and the Fairy King.

One day she decided to visit Ladybird. She got her basket and put inside two chocolates, one cuddly toy and one shell. She got on her skateboard and skated and skated and skated until she came to a cloud.

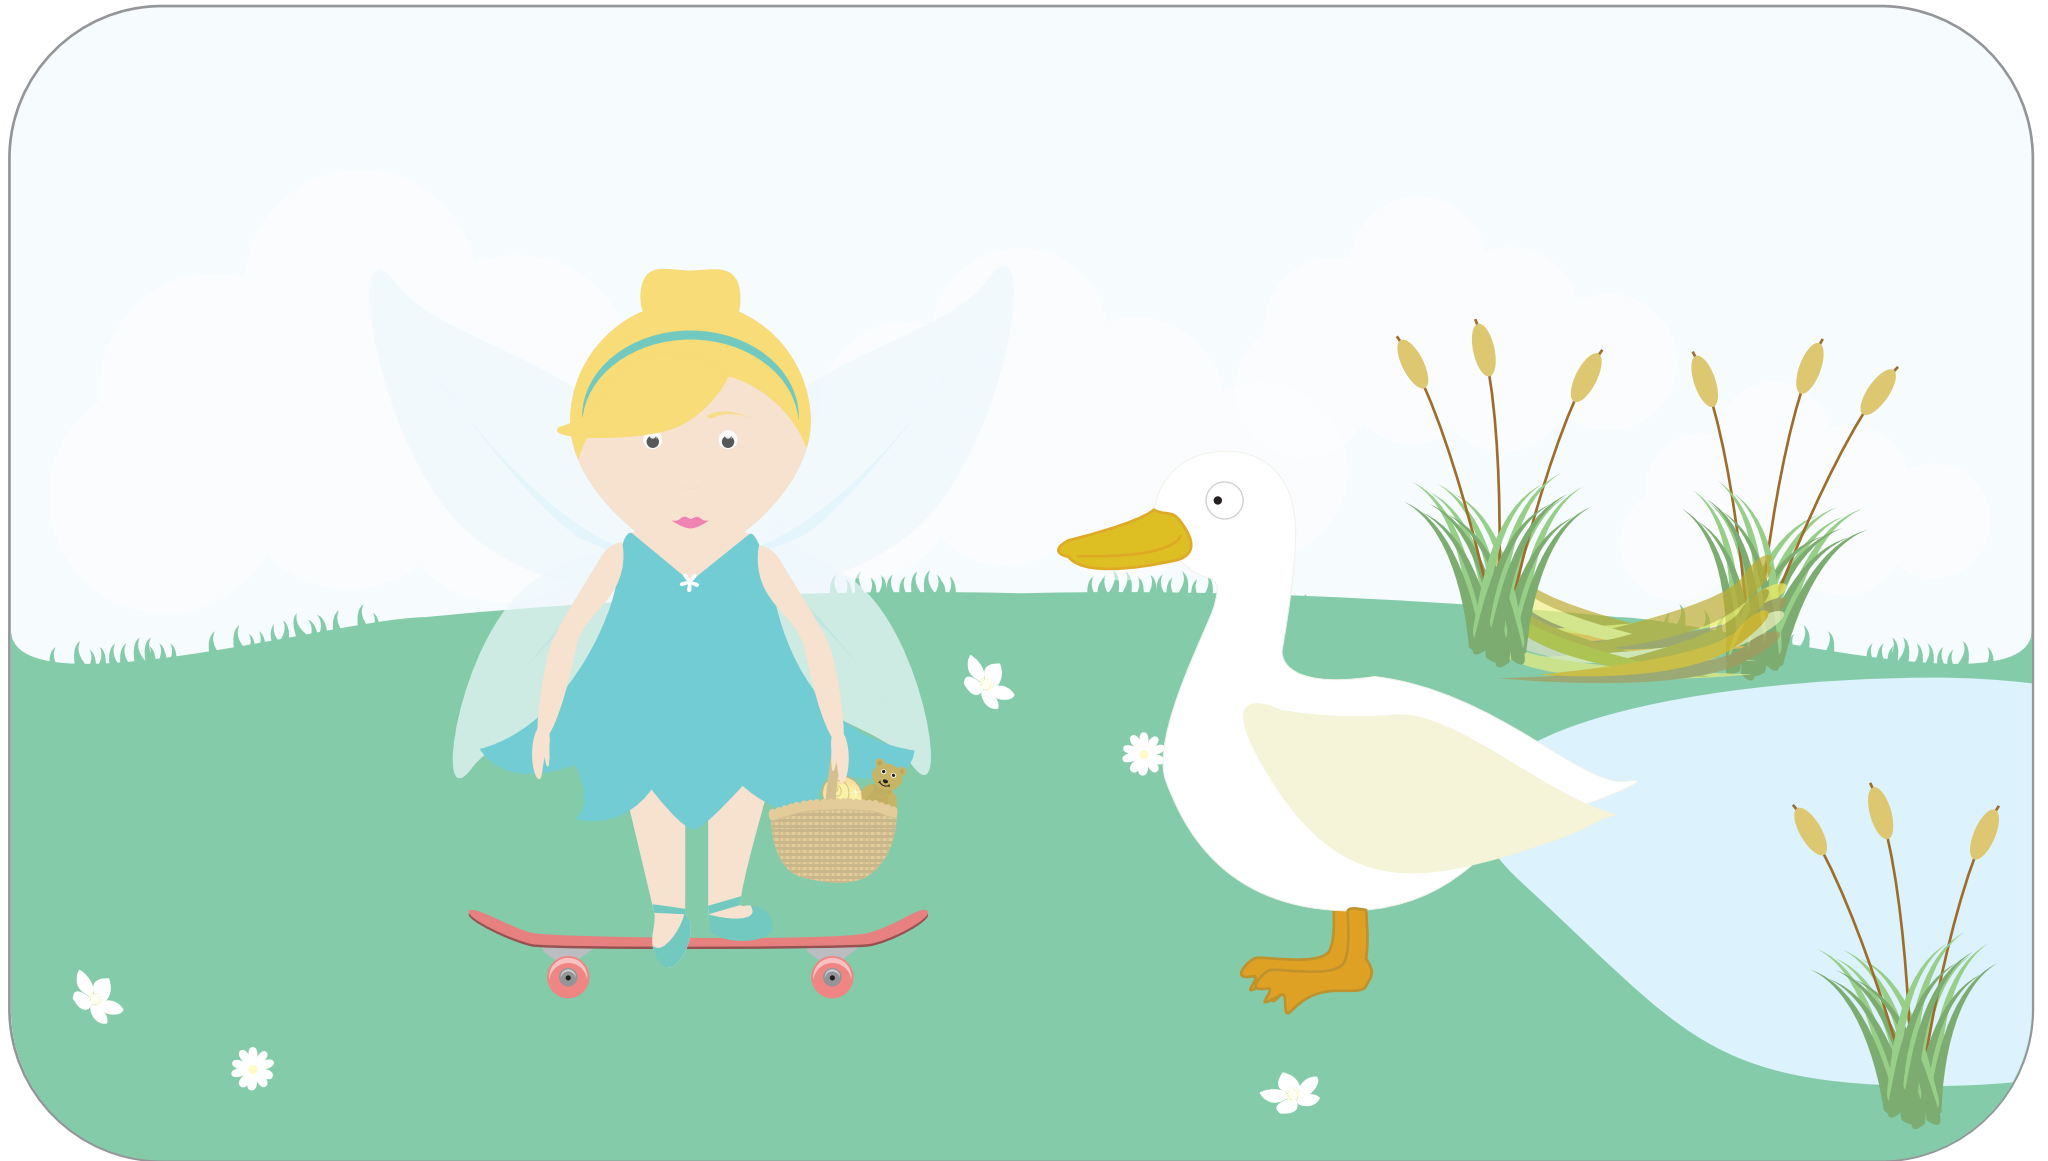

There she met a butterfly. A fluttery butterfly. "I'm hungry!" said the butterfly, "What have you got in your basket?" "I've got two chocolates and one cuddly toy" Said Tinkerbell. But she kept the shell hidden.

“I’ll have a chocolate” said the butterfly. And she ate it until she had chocolate all over her face. Next Tinkerbell got on her skateboard and she skated and she skated and she skated until she came to a tree. There she met a turtle. A slow turtle. “I’m hungry!” said the turtle, “What have you got in your basket?”

“I’ve got a chocolate and a cuddly toy” said Tinkerbell. But she kept the shell hidden. “I’ll have a chocolate” said the turtle. And she ate it until she had chocolate all over her face. Next she skated and skated and skated until she came to a pond. There she met a duck. A quacky duck.

“I’m lonely” said the duck. “What have you got in your basket?” “I’ve got a cuddly toy” said Tinkerbell. But she kept the shell hidden. “I’ll have the cuddly toy” said the duck. And he hugged it and he cuddled it in his bed at night. Next she skated and skated and skated until she came to Ladybird’s house. There she met Ladybird.

“I’m hungry” said Ladybird. “What have you got in your basket?” Ladybird looked in the basket “Oh no...just chocolate wrappers and a shell for tea.” But Tinkerbelle held the shell up to Ladybird’s ear and she listened and she listened and she listened, but all she could hear was the beautiful sound of the sea. So they had the beautiful sound of the sea for tea.
Luckily Ladybird had some chocolate muffins too!
