

Little Red Riding Hood lived in the woods. She was called Little Red Riding Hood because of the beautiful red cape she always wore.

One day, Little Red Riding Hood's mum gave her a basket of cakes to take to her Grandma.

Her Grandma lived in a house on the other side of the woods.

On her way to her Grandma's house Little Red Riding Hood saw some flowers she liked and she stopped to pick them.

A wolf saw her and crept over.
'Hello!' said the wolf. 'What are you doing?'
'I'm going to visit my grandmother. She lives in a house through those trees.'
Said Little Red Riding Hood

The wolf knew a shortcut to the house and ran along the path as quickly as he could.

When the wolf arrived at Grandma's house, he went inside and ate Grandma up!

The wolf then put on all of Grandma's clothes and jumped into her bed.

A few minutes later Little Red Riding Hood reached her Grandma's house, she went into the house and looked at the wolf in her Grandma's bed.

'Oh Grandma, what big eyes you have!'
'All the better to see you with!' said the wolf.

'Oh Grandma, what big ears you have!'
'All the better to hear you with!' said the wolf.

'Oh Grandma, what big teeth you have!'
'All the better to eat you with!' growled
the wolf.

Little Red Riding Hood screamed for help as loud as she possibly could!

A nearby woodcutter heard the loud scream and ran to the house.

The woodcutter grabbed the wolf and shook him until Grandma fell from his belly out of his mouth. The wolf ran away and was never seen again.

Little Red Riding Hood and Grandma sat down and finally ate some well deserved cakes.
