

Number bonds to 10

- The bottom two circles in each of the number bonds below should add up to the number shown in the top circle. Calculate the number that is missing from the blank circle. You can either write the number or draw the dots.

Number bonds to 10

► The bottom two circles in each of the number bonds below should add up to the number shown in the top circle. Calculate the number that is missing from the blank circle. You can either write the number or draw the dots.

